

WILL OR GOING TO EXERCISES PART 2

Directions: Determine what is happening in each sentence, i.e. an unplanned decision, first conditional plans, offers, promises, predictions / opinions.

Then, fill in the blanks with going to or will + verb. Use contractions.

1. Ted: Have you decided what to do on Friday night?
Mary: Yes, we've bought tickets for the movies and after that we _____ dinner at that new Mexican restaurant. (have)
2. Stew: I've had an awful day.
Katya: Sit down. I _____ (make) you a cup of tea.
3. Stuart: Who do you think _____ the World Cup? (win)
Steven: Uhhh, I don't know, but England _____ it. (win, not)
Stuart: I think Brazil _____ it again. (win)
4. Brian: Please remember to turn off the stove when you finish cooking dinner.
Sarah: Don't worry, I promise I _____. (forget, not)
5. Matt: Which bus _____ you _____? (catch)
Jackie: The 5:45 bus. If it arrives on time, I _____ home at 7:00 sharp. (be)
6. Bart: Would you like a cup of tea or some juice?
Lisa: I _____ have a cup of juice, please. (have)
7. Joyce: What are Linda's plans for the summer vacation?
Ann: Well, first she _____ with a friend in Singapore (stay), and then she _____ to Cambodia. (go)
8. Kevin: What _____ you _____ if he doesn't call? (do)
Justin: I _____ him. I don't have his phone number. (email)
9. Gina: How much is this shirt?
Jen: $16.99, plus tax.
Gina: Fine. I _____ it. (take)
10. Heather: What _____ tonight? (do)
Ruth: Well, if I finish my work early, I _____ to Gary's Old Town Tavern. (go, probably)