

WORD ORDER EXERCISES 2

Add the word(s) in italics to the sentence. Put the word in its usual mid-sentence position.

1. always Joe studies at home in the evening.
2. always Stew is at work in the evening.
3. always You can find Santiago at the library in the evening.
4. usually The mail is here by 1 PM.
5. usually The mail comes at 1 PM.
6. probably John will be here soon.
7. often Ann Marie comes to work early.
8. often Ann Marie is home at night.
9. probably Ann Marie will stay home tonight.
10. finally Jim wrote me an email.
11. finally The cycle is over.
12. finally I have finished my essay.
13. always Does Santiago study at the library?
14. always Is Matt at home in the evening?
15. always Can you find Matt at home in the evening?
16. usually Do you study at the library?
17. ever Is the professor absent?
18. just What did the teacher say?

19. usually When do you go to bed?
20. generally What time do you eat dinner?
21. occasionally My daughter stays overnight with a friend.
22. frequently We have guests for supper.
23. sometimes Do you feel homesick?
24. already I have read that article.
25. already The package is here.
26. probably Julie knows the answer.
27. usually Is Marcelo at home in the evening?
28. finally They have finished their project.
29. seldom Jack doesn't use social networks.
30. generally I don't stay up late. I go to bed early.
31. probably Susie probably won't come to the party. She will stay home.
32. never You shouldn't allow kids to play with matches.
33. hardly ever Jimbo isn't in a bad mood.
34. frequently My biology teacher came to class late last semester.
35. seldom The temperature doesn't drop below freezing in Atlanta.
36. always Gus rides the bus to school.