

BEGINNERS IDIOM PRACTICE 1

Let's practice some idioms!

Directions: For each sentence, supply the logical idiom in its correct form.

to do over	to pass out	right away, here, now
to keep out	keep off	all day
to get back	to look up	to show up
to hurry up/		keep away from
to slow down

1. I'm so tired! I got here at 8:00 AM, and it's past 7:00 PM now. I've been working _____.
2. I'm very worried about my expensive new furniture because my brother is coming to visit me with his six children. How can I _____ them _____ of the furniture?
3. If you don't know what "gift" means, _____ it _____ in a dictionary.
4. This is a mess! I won't accept your paper if it's not typed neatly. Please _____ it _____.
5. Did Ann Marie _____ at the party last night? I heard Jack waited for her for at least a half an hour.
6. This is an emergency. We need an ambulance for Diego de Almagro, N25-41 _____!
7. _____! We are going to be late for the concert. It starts in ten minutes.
8. You have your answer sheets. Please be quiet. I'll _____ the test now. You have an hour to finish it.
9. I didn't know you were leaving tomorrow. When will you _____ from Orlando?
10. Animals are not allowed in this store, so you had better _____ your dog _____ of here.
11. Did you hear what happened to Mary last night? She _____ during the concert. I think she is pregnant.
12. I told my children to _____ the pool when there are no adults around to supervise them.