

NOUNS: COUNT AND NONCOUNT NOUNS PART 3

Directions: Identify count and noncount nouns.

→ Write the word ONE in the blank if possible.

NOTE: One is a number. It is used with singular count nouns.

→ If it is not correct to use the word one, write a slash (/) in the blank.

NOTE: One cannot be used with noncount nouns. A noncount noun is called a “noncount noun” because you can’t “count” it with numbers, i.e. one, two, three, etc.

- | | | |
|--|-----------------------------|-----------------|
| 1. I have ___/___ furniture in my apartment. | furniture → count | noncount |
| 2. I have one chair in my apartment. | chair → count | noncount |
| 3. Ritha is wearing _____ watch on her left hand. | watch → count | noncount |
| 4. Ritha is wearing _____ jewelry on her left hand. | jewelry → count | noncount |
| 5. I have _____ homework to do tomorrow | homework → count | noncount |
| 6. I have _____ essay to do. | essay → count | noncount |
| 7. I have _____ work to finish. | work → count | noncount |
| 8. I have _____ job to finish. | job → count | noncount |
| 9. I asked _____ question . | question → count | noncount |
| 10. I was looking for _____ information . | information → count | noncount |
| 11. I learned _____ new word today. | word → count | noncount |
| 12. I learn _____ new vocabulary every day. | vocabulary → count | noncount |

COUNT AND NONCOUNT NOUNS PART 4

Directions: Complete the sentences with A / AN (for count nouns) or SOME (for noncount nouns).

1. I bought _____ furniture for my living room.
2. I bought _____ chair for my living room.
3. Ritha is wearing _____ watch on her left hand.
4. Ritha is wearing _____ perfume.
5. I have _____ homework to do tomorrow.
6. I have _____ essay to do.
7. I have _____ job to finish.
8. I have _____ work to do.
9. We bought _____ equipment for the garage.
10. You need _____ saw to cut wood.
11. I ate _____ food.
12. I had _____ apple.
13. I wore _____ old clothing.
14. I wore _____ old sweater.
15. Jerry asked me for _____ advice.

16. I gave Jerry _____ suggestion.
17. I read _____ interesting article in the newspaper.
18. The paper has _____ interesting stories today.
19. The newspaper has _____ interesting news today.
20. I read _____ poem after dinner.
21. I read _____ poetry after dinner.
22. I know _____ song from India.
23. I know _____ Indian music.
24. I learned _____ new idiom.
25. I learned _____ new slang.

COUNT AND NONCOUNT NOUNS PART 5

Directions: Add final -S / -ES if possible. Otherwise, write a slash (/) in the blank.

1. I'm learning a lot of grammar _____.
2. We're studying count and noncount noun _____.
3. Santiago knows several language _____.
4. Santiago knows a lot of Portuguese _____.
5. Sarah doesn't like to wear makeup _____.
6. We enjoyed the scenery _____ in the countryside.
7. Ecuador has high mountain _____.
8. Suburban streets usually don't have a lot of traffic _____.
9. The streets are full of automobile _____.
10. I had sand _____ in my sneakers from walking on the beach.
11. The air was full of dust _____ from the strong winds.
12. Hawaii is famous for its beautiful beach _____.
13. I've learned a lot of slang _____ from my new friends.
14. I made a lot of mistake _____ my last writing assignment.
15. I have some important information _____ to give to you.