

NOUNS: FINAL -S / --ES

Directions: Add the final -s / --es where necessary. Do not change, add, or omit any other words in the sentences.

1. A bird care for its feather by cleaning them with its beak.
2. There are many profession in the world. Nurse take care of sick people. Pilot fly helicopter. Farmer raise crop. Teacher develop mind.
3. An architect design building. An archaeologist dig in the ground to find object from past civilizations.
4. The first contemporary computer were develop in the 1930s and 1940s. Computer were not commercially ready until the 1950s.
5. There are several business in my hometown. The box factory employ many people.
6. Koala bear are Australian animal. They are not found on any of the other continent, except in zoo.
7. Mosquito are found everywhere in the world, including Antarctica.
8. At one time, many people believed that tomato were poisonous.
9. Bird, fish, insect, and mammal are different species. Each group of these life form shares physical characteristic.
10. Many of the creature in the world possess the five sense of sight, hearing, touch, taste, and smell. Still, these sense are often more highly developed in one species than another. Bird have a highly developed sense of sight. For instance, an eagle can spot a small lizard from high in the air. The lizard would be undetectable by a human being from the same distance. Animal that hunt by sniffing out a trail on the ground may have poor eyesight but a keen sense of smell. For example, dog see a blurred, gray world because they are nearsighted and cannot see colors. However, they can smell thousands of times better than human being can.