

THE PASSIVE WITH GET

Directions: Complete the sentences by using an appropriate form of get and the PAST PARTICIPLE of the verbs in the list below.

accept	dress	embarrass	invite
catch	elect	fire	mug
cheat	electrocute	hit	ruin

1. I shouldn't have parked my car under that oak tree. It _____ by bird droppings and leaves. Now, it has permanent marks on it.
2. Joe has applied to three top colleges. Since he's an excellent student, I'm positive he'll _____ by at least one of them. If he doesn't, there are other good universities he can attend.
3. Andrew thought he had gotten a good deal when he bought a diamond ring from some man on the street, but the "stone" turned out to be glass and was basically worthless. Andrew _____.
4. Part A: I can't believe Kyrie _____ from his job. I thought he was a good worker.
Part B: He was, but then he had a major disagreement with his office manager, and tempers were flying. I hope he gets his job back.
5. Part A: Let's take the bus.
Part B: Not me. The last time I was on the bus, I _____. A Liga fan knocked me down and stole my wallet.
6. Part A: Did you _____ to the Flanders' barbecue tonight?
Part B: Yes, but I can't go. The Eagles are playing the Cowgirls tonight.
7. Part A: You're all out of breath and sweaty!
Part B: I was getting home and had to _____ quickly. Then I ran all the way over here.
Part A: Well, that shows why your collar is up and your top four buttons on your shirt are undone.
8. The dog was running through the forest when it suddenly _____ in a hunter's trap.
9. It was a close vote. The new president _____ by a very small margin.
10. What are you doing?! Don't let the cord to your toaster fall into the sink. You'll _____!
11. We were able to save some of the furniture, but many of our things _____ when the floodwaters poured into our home.
12. During the school play, little Artie _____ when he couldn't remember the lines he was supposed to say.