

LEVEL 2 IDIOM EXERCISE 2

Directions: Complete the story by filling in each blank with a Level 2 idiom in its appropriate form.

When Jack and Jill met a year and a half ago, they liked each other very much. Jack _____ Jill _____ to the movies, and of course Jill accepted. As time passed, they began to _____. They loved each other so much that they decided to get married to each other. They had a nice wedding and went to Hawaii for their honeymoon. Once there, they _____ a nice hotel and spent the best time together.

They had a good relationship, and they really _____ each other. Unfortunately, their problems started a year later. Jack was always tardy. He _____ never _____ to have dinner with Jill. Jill was always _____ after Jack's mess. He always _____ his dates with Jill saying that he had to work. Well, Jill started to get tired of this. She was fed up with this situation. Besides, he was always saying that he didn't have any money, and as a consequence, Jill _____ of groceries for the house. They finally decided to file for divorce. Jill needs some time to _____ this situation, but maybe someday she'll find her Prince Charming.