

BE SUPPOSED TO part 1 (Chart 9-5)

Directions: Make sentences with a similar meaning by using be supposed to.

1. The teacher wants us to be on time for class.

2. People expect the weather to be hot and humid tomorrow.

3. People expect the plane to take off at 5:30 A.M.

4. I expect Dolores to write me an email.

5. Someone expected me to return his book to the Coordinator's office yesterday, but I didn't.

6. I expect the mail to arrive at noon.

7. Our professor expects us to read Chapter 11 before class tomorrow morning.

8. My supervisor expects me to work late tonight.

9. The instructor expects us to complete Exercise 12 for homework.

10. The weather service has predicted snow for tomorrow. According to the weather service, it

11. The directions on the pill container say, "Take one pill every six hours." According to the directions on the pill container, I _____

12. My father expects me to polish the furniture and (to) sweep the floor.

13. Someone expected me to go to a bachelor party last night, but I stayed home.

BE SUPPOSED TO part 2

Directions: Use be supposed to to show that people expect a certain behavior. It is a rule or a custom.

EXAMPLE: People expect you to tip a taxi driver.

You're supposed to tip a taxi driver.

1. People expect you to be quiet in a library.
2. Instructors expect you to speak English all around Fulbright.
3. When you bump into someone by accident, people expect you to say, "Excuse me" or "I'm sorry."
4. When you don't hear or understand someone, people expect you to say, "Pardon me."
5. When someone invites you to his or her house for dinner, people expect you to bring something.
6. When someone invites you to his or her house for dinner, people expect you to be on time.