

LEVEL 3 IDIOM EXERCISE 2

Directions: Match the idioms from Column A to the correct meanings from Column B. The idioms marked with an asterisk (*) are nonseparable.

COLUMN A	COLUMN B
1. to put out	a. _____ to visit informally
2. to tear out	b. _____ to reach the same position or level
3. to catch up*	c. _____ to call someone on the phone
4. to drop by, drop in (on)*	d. _____ to return an item to someone
5. to call someone up	e. _____ to intentionally leave someone waiting at an appointment. To fail to appear
6. to have something on	f. _____ to be careful of something or someone
7. Look out! / Look out (for)	g. _____ to extinguish a cigarette or fire
8. to give back*	h. _____ to remove a sheet of paper from a notebook
9. to stand someone up	i. _____ to wear something
10. to fill out	j. _____ to complete a questionnaire or official form

Directions: Using the idioms from above, complete the following sentences.

1. Lara looked very unusual today. She _____ a yellow blouse, a blue sweater, and green pants.
2. Maybe I'll _____ Tom's house after work.
3. I hate to register at my university. Every semester, I have to _____ tons of forms _____.

4. OK, students. _____ a piece of paper _____ of your notebooks. You're going to take a quiz now.
5. When you go to the Amazon rainforest, you have to _____ snakes.
6. I just remembered that I have to _____ Molly _____. She has to give me some information about the house I want to buy.
7. Yesterday, I had a date scheduled with Cindy Crawford, but she _____ me up.
8. Would you mind _____ that cigar _____? I can't stand inhaling smoke.
9. Judy left five minutes ago, but I think I can _____ with her if I leave right now.
10. I've had this book for three months. I believe it's time to _____ it _____ to Jorge.

Directions: In the space below, use any of the idioms from Level 3 to create two short dialogues. You don't have to use all of the idioms.