

Combine the following sentences to form one sentence using adjective clauses!

I was born in Cooper Hospital. It is in Camden, NJ.

Vanessa Cortez is a student in my class. She works as a dancer in New York City.

There are eight women in this class. One of them likes other women.

The Fulbright Commission is an English institution in Quito. Quito is the capital of Ecuador.

The Fulbright Commission is an English institute. The outside of it is painted blue.

Stew Padilla is a man. He teaches Pre-Beginners at the Fulbright Commission. Fulbright is a language institution.

Veronica is absent today. She is in my Level 4 English class at the Fulbright Commission.

May 10th is a day. Rene Espinoza was born on that day.

Many of Chuck's 3-5pm students are Liga fans. That makes both Chuck and Matt very worried about the future of Fulbright.

We ate turkey last night. It was mixed with tomatoes, zucchini, onions, and peas.

We have three grades tomorrow. Two of those grades are speaking grades.