

CHAPTER 13 REVIEW TEST

Short Answer

Directions: Circle all the possible completions for the sentence. Do not add any commas or capital letters.

1. The soccer team _____ won the city championship practiced three times a week.
 - a. who
 - b. whom
 - c. that
 - d. which
 - e. they
2. My daughter had on a dress _____ was too short. I made her change her clothes before she went out.
 - a. who
 - b. whom
 - c. that
 - d. which
 - e. it
3. Mr. Scott, to _____ I sent the email yesterday, hasn't responded yet.
 - a. who
 - b. whom
 - c. that
 - d. which
 - e. him
4. I don't know the man _____ Teri is engaged to.
 - a. who
 - b. whom
 - c. that
 - d. which
 - e. he
5. The era of history _____ Gordon is most interested in is the Middle Ages.
 - a. who
 - b. whom
 - c. that
 - d. which
 - e. it
6. Larry Miller won first prize for a science project on radiation _____ he had been working on for several months.
 - a. who
 - b. whom
 - c. that
 - d. which

e. it

Directions: Combine the two sentences. Use the second sentence as the adjective clause.

7. Midori served tasty Japanese snacks. We enjoyed them very much.

8. Robin told the children a story. The story made them laugh.

9. The pianist played a Mozart concerto. It was one of Mark's favorite pieces of music.

10. Julia's husband gave her a beautiful bouquet of roses. He bought it at the flower market.

Directions: Complete the sentence with who or whose.

11. The boy _____ lives next door is very friendly.
12. I forgot the name of the teacher _____ teaches French.
13. The little girl _____ hair is in ringlets is so cute!
14. Rob knows a Ukrainian man _____ family immigrated here in 1965.
15. This coat belongs to the man _____ came to the meeting with Jonathan.
16. Mrs. Manzinalli is looking for the student _____ notebook was left in class.
17. There are two students in my class _____ knowledge of American history is impressive.

Directions: Combine the sentences with whose. Use the second sentence as the adjective clause.

18. The woman lives in Los Angeles. Her daughter is an actress.

19. We want to do business with that company. Its products are top quality.

20. Sarah feels sorry for her neighbors. Their car was stolen last night.

21. The student came to class late every day. Her homework was never done.

22. I have never met Meg's brother. His wife is the conductor of the symphony orchestra.

23. Ellen met a kind man. His parents died when he was very young.

24. The Johnsons live in the apartment upstairs. Their son goes to Stanford University.

Directions: Read the conversation and complete the sentences with where or when.

25. A: Please tell me a story about the time 1. _____ you were a child.

B: I remember the small town in Montana 2. _____ I grew up. In the 1960s, 3. _____ I was a kid, life was simple. We lived in a wonderful neighborhood 4. _____ there were many families. Kids of all ages played games outdoors 5. _____ there was room enough for everyone. In the summertime, my friends and I played outside until 10:00 P.M. 6. _____ our parents called us home. One of our favorite summertime activities was to sell lemonade on hot days 7. _____ everyone was thirsty. We put up a lemonade stand in front of our house 8. _____ many people passed by. On good days, 9. _____ we sold all of our lemonade, we made several dollars. After we had sold all of our lemonade, we happily walked to the neighborhood store 10. _____ we spent our hard-earned money on ice cream, penny candy, and soda pop. Next year 11. _____ I go on vacation, I would like to visit my old neighborhood again.

Directions: Combine the sentences with where or when. Use the second sentence as the adjective clause.

26. My mother enjoys going to the library. She can check out many books and materials there.

27. My favorite season is spring. The daffodils and tulips bloom then.

28. That is the furniture store. We bought our couch and coffee table there.

29. The store is near our house. They sell many Scandinavian products there.

30. Do you know the name of the city? The Olympic games will be held there.

Directions: Circle the correct explanation of the meaning of the sentence.

31. My brother, who lives in Phoenix, works at an engineering firm.

- a. I have only one brother.
- b. I have more than one brother.

32. The visiting executives, who were from Okinawa and were used to a warm climate, arrived in Chicago during a snowstorm.

- a. All of the executives were from Okinawa.
- b. Only some of the executives were from Okinawa.

33. John watched a movie on the DVD player that is in the den.

- a. John has more than one DVD player.
- b. John has only one DVD player.

34. Our wood-burning stove, which is in the corner of our living room, keeps the first floor of the house warm.

- a. There is only one wood-burning stove in the house.
- b. There is more than one wood-burning stove in the house.

35. Conifers, which have needles instead of leaves, are plentiful in the forests of the western United States.

- a. All conifers have needles instead of leaves.
- b. Only some conifers have needles instead of leaves.

Directions: Add commas where necessary.

36. Dr. Janice Miller who is an expert in children's health spoke at the Parents' Club meeting.

- 37. The city of Dubrovnik which is on the Adriatic coast is surrounded by an ancient stone wall.
- 38. On our last family vacation we went to Disneyland where we shook hands with Mickey Mouse.
- 39. I saw Alex and Alice who are twins at the shopping center.
- 40. Mr. Mitchell with whom we shared our back fence was a fantastic gardener.
- 41. The Marriage of Figaro which is one of Mozart's comedic operas is performed regularly on stages around the world.
- 42. The book that I'm reading is from the Everett Public Library where you can borrow books for up to three weeks.

Directions: Combine the two sentences. Use the second sentence as the adjective clause.

- 43. This story has three main characters. All of them are interesting and funny.

- 44. My school employs 60 teachers. More than half of them have master's degrees.

- 45. I bought a pound of strawberries. A few of them are still green.

- 46. The building caretaker found two jackets. Neither of them was Josh's.

- 47. Peter advises many students. Most of their questions are easy to answer.

- 48. Mr. Carter talked to the large group of college students. Some of them did not know that he used to be the president.

Directions: Change the adjective clause to an adjective phrase.

- 49. The woman who is sitting across the room is Jeff's aunt.

50. The police officer who is in charge of directing traffic is very helpful.

51. Instructors who attend the workshop will learn about teaching English pronunciation.

52. How much are the tickets for the play that is showing at the New City Theater?

53. The archeologists who were digging in an area in eastern China made a significant discovery.

54. The Olympic official who presented the medals shook hands with the athletes.

55. There are more and more Americans who are driving cars that run on biodiesel.

56. Heather is the manager who oversees the accounting department.

Directions: Correct the error(s).

57. My sister, who lives in Guadalajara, she comes to visit every summer.

58. Emma borrowed money from her sister whom she has to pay her back by next weekend.

59. Mark doesn't get much sleep. He has a neighbor who his dog barks all night long.

60. The store manager locked the door where was at the back of the store before he went home.

61. There were fourteen students in my grammar class, seven of them were from Korea.

62. The young woman sitting across from me on the plane was listening to music and watching videos on her computer.

Directions: Circle all the possible completions for the sentence. Do not add any commas or capital letters.

63. Jack would like to know the name of the store _____ I got my new DVD player.
a. when
b. where
c. which
d. that
64. Philip will meet us at the bus stop _____ is on the corner of 23rd Avenue and Main Street.
a. when
b. where
c. which
d. that
65. Can you run upstairs and get my green scarf? It's in the closet _____ I keep my winter coat.
a. when
b. where
c. which
d. that
66. The house _____ Maria is going to buy has two bedrooms and one bathroom.
a. when
b. where
c. which
d. that

Directions: Complete the sentence with who, whom, or whose.

67. The person with _____ we were upset didn't come to the meeting.
68. I've really made a mess of the whole situation. There is no one _____ can help me now.
69. The supervisor called in the workers _____ job performance was less than satisfactory. She gave the other workers the afternoon off.
70. The interview committee read the résumés of over 200 applicants, only ten of _____ would be chosen for in-person interviews.

Directions: Combine the sentences. Use the second sentence as the adjective clause.

71. Mrs. Tanaka is looking for the person. The person's car is blocking her driveway.
-

Directions: Change the adjective clause to an adjective phrase.

72. People who visit the Taj Mahal are impressed that a man built it to honor his wife.

73. The director's new movie, which is opening in theaters this weekend, is sure to be entertaining.

Directions: Add commas where necessary.

74. Mr. Parker collects toy trains which were manufactured in the 1940s and 50s.

75. Paul will call you at 5:30 P.M. when he will be home from work.

76. I have looked everywhere for my grammar book which I am sure I left on the dining room table. I can't find it anywhere.

77. There isn't any reason for the actor who is playing the part of Romeo to dye his hair.

Directions: Circle all the possible completions for the sentence. Do not add any commas or capital letters.

78. The months _____ have 30 days are April, June, September, and November.

- a. when
- b. where
- c. which
- d. that

79. I remember the time _____ Robert forgot to turn off the bathroom faucet and we came home to a house full of water.

- a. when
- b. where
- c. which
- d. that

80. The office _____ you are going to be working in is down the hall, the second door to the left.

- a. when
- b. where
- c. which
- d. that

81. The day _____ we got married was probably the happiest day of my life.

- a. when
- b. where
- c. which
- d. that

Directions: Complete the sentence with who, whom, or whose.

82. I recently got the autograph of J. K. Rowling, _____ is the author of the Harry Potter books.
83. To _____ did you address the letter?
84. Ms. Morimoto would like to find someone _____ can organize and catalog her collection of Asian art.
85. The firefighters, several of _____ had worked through the night, were exhausted from battling the fire on the hills near the city.

Directions: Combine the sentences. Use the second sentence as the adjective clause.

86. Joe's parents don't like the music. Joe listens to the music.

87. The printer is fast and dependable. Jason bought it last week.

88. The police talked to the woman. Her car had been broken into.

89. The issue is not relevant to our current discussion. Many people are talking about the issue.

90. People are in great demand in today's job market. People have advanced computer skills.

Directions: Change the adjective clause to an adjective phrase.

91. The severe drought which is occurring in the Midwest this summer has ruined the corn crop.

92. The missing man's family is desperately seeking anyone who has information about his activities.

Directions: Add commas where necessary.

93. The roof of my house which is already 20 years old is leaking badly and in need of repair.
94. People who work outside at night must wear reflective clothing so they can be seen.
95. Jennifer's birthday cake which had strawberries and cream on top was enjoyed by everyone at the party.