

CHAPTER 20 REVIEW TEST

Short Answer

Directions: Decide if the sentence expresses a habitual activity, a fact / general truth, or a future activity / situation. Circle your choice.

1. If we have time, we will go to the bookstore.
 - a. a habitual activity
 - b. a fact / general truth
 - c. a future activity / situation
2. If my parents visit this weekend, we are going to go to the rose garden in the park.
 - a. a habitual activity
 - b. a fact / general truth
 - c. a future activity / situation
3. I always answer my cell phone if it rings.
 - a. a habitual activity
 - b. a fact / general truth
 - c. a future activity / situation
4. If clothes fit well, they look good on the person wearing them.
 - a. a habitual activity
 - b. a fact / general truth
 - c. a future activity / situation
5. If the plane arrives on time, I will be amazed.
 - a. a habitual activity
 - b. a fact / general truth
 - c. a future activity / situation
6. My brother usually gets upset if someone interrupts him.
 - a. a habitual activity
 - b. a fact / general truth
 - c. a future activity / situation

Directions: Complete the sentence with the verb(s) in parentheses. It may be true or untrue.

7. If Richard went to the hardware store, he (buy) _____ a new hammer.
8. My car is low on gas. If I run out of gas on the way to the gas station, I (call) _____ you.
9. Jim is moving to a new apartment. He would tell us if he (need) _____ help.

10. If students did their homework every day, they (pass) _____ the quizzes easily.
11. If Marie (receive) _____ an email, she always answers it promptly.
12. If the repairman (come, not) _____ this afternoon, I'm going to call the electric company.
13. If I (be) _____ you, I (be) _____ angry about the broken vase.

Directions: Underline the clause that expresses a condition. Write "T" next to the statement if it expresses a true idea. Write "U" next to the statement if it expresses an untrue idea. Then decide if the verb has a present / future or past meaning.

14. _____ If the coffee is ready, we will drink it. present / future past
15. _____ If the car had started, I would have driven. present / future past
16. _____ If children are scared, they cry. present / future past
17. _____ If Rebecca is tired, she goes to bed early. present / future past
18. _____ If Jeremy needs more time on tests, I allow it. present / future past
19. _____ If Helena hadn't gotten sick, she would have come. present / future past
20. _____ Jason calls if he's going to be late. present / future past
21. _____ My father would have waved if he had seen us. present / future past

Directions: Answer the questions.

22. If I were rich, I would quit my job and move to an island in the Caribbean.
- a. Am I rich? _____
- b. Have I quit my job? _____
- c. Have I moved to an island in the Caribbean? _____

23. Susan wouldn't listen to country and western music if she didn't like it.
- a. Does Susan like country and western music? _____
 - b. Does Susan listen to country and western music? _____
24. If Javier had thought carefully about the assignment, he wouldn't have had trouble with it.
- a. Did Javier think carefully about the assignment? _____
 - b. Did Javier have trouble with the assignment? _____
25. Alicia would have avoided the traffic jam if she had listened to the traffic report before leaving home.
- a. Did Alicia get stuck in a traffic jam? _____
 - b. Did Alicia listen to the traffic report? _____

Directions: Complete the sentence with the verb(s) in parentheses.

26. If Philip had been there, he (enjoy) _____ the program very much.
27. If the doctors (find) _____ the problem sooner, Marie wouldn't have gotten so sick.
28. If Joseph (bring, not) _____ his guitar, he would have played the piano instead.
29. If Maya (want) _____ to call you last night, I (give) _____ her your number.
30. I bought a motorcycle. If I (have) _____ more money, I (buy) _____ a car instead.

Directions: Complete the sentence with the verbs in parentheses. Pay attention to the tense.

31. If it (be) _____ windy now, we (go) _____ sailing.
32. If it (be) _____ windy yesterday, we (go) _____ sailing.

33. You are so unhappy at work. I (quit) _____ my job if I (hate) _____ mine as much as you hate yours.
34. My foot (get, not) _____ so swollen if I (put) _____ ice on it last night.
35. If Miko (need) _____ a ride to school tomorrow, she (call) _____ me.

Directions: Complete the sentence with an appropriate auxiliary verb.

36. Sue doesn't live in New York, but if she _____, she would see Broadway shows often.
37. We already ate dinner, but if we _____, we would have asked you for a snack.
38. I don't have a dictionary, but if I _____, I would check the spelling of this word.
39. Paul doesn't like classical music, but if he _____, he would go to the symphony.
40. We didn't go to Las Vegas, but if we _____, I'm sure we would have loved it.
41. I haven't finished that book yet, but if I _____, I would lend it to you.
42. We aren't vegetarians, but if we _____, we wouldn't eat meat.
43. Mr. Lee is a good teacher, but if he _____, his students wouldn't study so hard.
44. Ted and Nadia don't have any kids, but if they _____, they wouldn't be able to travel so much.

Directions: Complete the sentence with the correct form of the verb. Make an untrue or contrary-to-fact statement.

45. Since Hank isn't using his dictionary, I'll borrow it.
If Hank _____ his dictionary, I wouldn't borrow it.
46. Chieko's mom was talking on the phone. She didn't smell the pizza burning.
If Chieko's mom _____ on the phone, she would have smelled the pizza burning.
47. Clara graduated from the university two months ago, but she isn't looking for a job yet.

Clara's parents would be happy if she _____ for a job.

48. Fatima went to the museum last weekend, but she left after 30 minutes. She wasn't enjoying the exhibit.

If Fatima _____ the exhibit, she wouldn't have left so soon.

Directions: Change the statement into a conditional sentence.

49. The house is too hot inside because the heat was left on. But . . .

50. The children have practiced a lot so they can sing the song by heart. But ...

51. I can't check my email because I didn't bring my laptop computer. But ...

52. Charles didn't feed the cats so now they are hungry. But ...

53. Mark is tired because he flew in from Hong Kong late last night. But ...

Directions: Circle the correct completion.

54. It's too bad Henry can't visit the museum with us. I really wish he (will be going, were going) with us.

55. I can't speak Chinese, but I wish I (could, could have).

56. I don't like it when people tell lies. I wish everyone (will, would) just be honest!

57. James didn't get accepted to the university he wanted to go to. Now he wishes he (had studied, would studied) harder in high school.
58. Wow! That was such a close game. I wish our team (would win, had won). It's disappointing.
59. We used to shoot off fireworks on Independence Day, but now they are illegal. I wish fireworks (were, would being) legal again.
60. Nikolai has gained a lot of weight, but he wishes he (hadn't, wouldn't).

Directions: Answer the question. Write a complete conditional sentence.

61. What would you do if you were a movie star?

62. What would you have done if you hadn't learned English?

63. What do you wish would happen in the future?

64. What do you wish had happened in the past, but didn't?

65. If you were not taking this quiz, what would you be doing?

Directions: Complete the sentence with the verb(s) in parentheses. Pay attention to the tense.

66. I (be) _____ very surprised if I didn't pass this test.

67. If babies cry, their parents usually (pick) _____ them up.

68. If Benjamin (study, not) _____ in the U.S. now, he would be studying in France.
69. George (catch, not) _____ a cold if he (wear) _____ a jacket last night.
70. If James always (pay) _____ his bills on time, he wouldn't be stressed about them.
71. If the price of gasoline (go) _____ up more, I will start taking the bus.
72. Leila (visit) _____ her grandchildren last summer if they (visit, not) _____ her.
73. If Byoung wins the lottery, he (buy) _____ a new car.

Directions: Change the statement into a conditional sentence.

74. Madeleine missed her flight, so she is feeling angry and frustrated. But ...

75. Saya can't play the pieces for her piano lesson because she hasn't practiced all week. But ...

76. Michael got three traffic tickets last year, so now his insurance rates are going up. But ...

77. Tomás doesn't want to move to a different city, so he didn't accept the job offer. But ...

78. Stacy Smith is the new mayor because she won the election. But ...

Directions: Identify the implied condition by creating a sentence using an if-clause.

79. I would stop to chat with you, but I'm in a hurry.

80. Fred had to work late. Otherwise, he would have met us for dinner.

81. I would never have completed this project on time without your help.

Directions: Circle the correct completion.

82. Elena didn't go to the concert last weekend, but she wishes she (had, hadn't).

83. Mrs. Takasawa doesn't speak Japanese, but she wishes she (did, would).

84. My toddler can open the drawers in the kitchen, but I wish he (can't, couldn't).

85. My son is going to join the army, but I wish he (wasn't, weren't).

86. Sarah went on a blind date with Marsha's brother, but she wishes she (hadn't, didn't).

Directions: Complete the sentence with the verb(s) in parentheses. Pay attention to the tense.

87. If Geoffrey (lose) _____ his job, he will look for a new job.

88. Leo (visit) _____ us more often if he had time.

89. If Lara goes to Paris for vacation this summer, she (see) _____ the Eiffel Tower.

90. Mr. Martinez (pull, not) _____ a muscle in his back if he (be) _____ more careful moving the sofa.

91. My dad would answer the phone if he (cook, not) _____ dinner right now.

Directions: Change the statement into a conditional sentence.

92. The children are running and yelling, so they didn't hear the recess bell. But ...

93. I didn't finish the report because my computer isn't working. But ...

94. Roberta doesn't like cheese, so she didn't eat any pizza last night. But ...

Directions: Identify the implied condition by creating a sentence using an if-clause.

95. Lisa has a doctor's appointment. Otherwise, she wouldn't have left work early.

96. The team couldn't have won the championship without their coach's direction.
