

COMPLETE THE FOLLOWING SENTENCES WITH ADJECTIVE CLAUSES:

Michelle is a great worker. She impresses everyone...

I have to say something about your project. There is something...

I watch everything...

I'm powerless to help her. There's nothing...

I have a question. There is something...

He can't trust anyone. There is no one...

I know somebody...

The movie had already begun. Those...

I listen to everything...

The quiz we took yesterday was trickier than the one...

The classes I am taking this semester are easier than the ones...

I look up to my grandfather. He is someone...

It is I...

Classes are available at Fulbright for those...

Alejandra is the only one in class...

Lizbeth falls in love easily. She loves any guy...

Veronica is not somebody...

William likes to wear kilts in his spare time. He is the only man...

We study from the Betty Azar book, the cover...

We study in room X, the walls...

Vanessa drives a small car, the trunk...