

GRAMMAR CHECK (RELATIVE CLAUSES)

Part A: Complete each sentence by writing who, whom, or that in the blank. If the relative pronoun is not necessary, put parentheses around it.

1. TV programs _____ are on late at night are for adults.
2. Anyone _____ watches TV all the time should probably read more.
3. I have neighbors _____ I do a lot of things with.
4. My friend _____ is a private detective has talked with many famous people.
5. The clothes _____ I like to wear are old and comfortable.
6. Anything _____ the public can give to the disaster victims will be appreciated.
7. Please ask the secretaries _____ were filing instead of working at their computers to come to my office.
8. Should I buy the coat _____ my husband likes?
9. Federico has never had a job _____ he enjoys.
10. Doesn't he understand that he shouldn't talk to people _____ he doesn't know?

Part B: Combine each pair of sentences into one. Use a relative clause.

1. Julio is a man. He likes to play the piano.

2. Henry is a politician. I don't trust him.

3. Lori said something yesterday. It really surprised me.

4. My teacher gave me advice. The advice changed my outlook on life.

Part C: Complete each sentence with a relative clause.

1. The assignment _____ is hard.
2. The other students _____ are from Venezuela.
3. I once had a teacher _____.