

LEVEL 4 REVIEW

Part A: Combine the following independent clauses with the appropriate pronoun. Use the second sentence as the adjective clause.

1. The mail didn't arrive yesterday. We were disappointed.
2. There are 20 instructors at Fulbright. One of them is Canadian.
3. The Smith sisters are very successful. Each one of them has a good job.
4. I will buy some clothes tomorrow. Some of them must be skirts.
5. The water tank was cleaned. The inside of it was dry.
6. My boyfriend bought me a bracelet. The value was $10.
7. I have a computer. The on-button is stuck.
8. My mother told me I couldn't go out. This made me upset.
9. The package arrived on time. This was fortunate because I needed it.
10. Jen Taubel was quiet. This was a miracle in itself.

Part B: Complete the following sentences with an adjective clause.

1. I know someone _____.
2. I didn't understand anything _____.
3. The bank is giving loans to those _____.

4. The teacher is the only one _____.
5. I listen to everything _____.
6. The Westervelts own two houses, one of _____.
7. I have two friends, both of _____.
8. I had to buy ten books, most of _____.

Part C: Change all of the adjective clauses in the following paragraph into adjective phrases.

Hell's Canyon, which is one of the deepest canyons in North America, borders Idaho and Oregon. The Snake River, which is one of the longest rivers in the United States, runs through this spectacular canyon and eventually reaches the Pacific Ocean, over five hundred miles away. The canyon is the home of lots of wildlife, such as salmon, deer, elk, and goats. Many of the salmon which make the difficult voyage from the ocean every year lay their eggs in the Snake or in other rivers that flow into it. Fishermen who make the journey to Hell's Canyon can go home with huge trout, steelhead, and other fish which populate the Snake River. The abundance of wildlife and spectacular natural sights make Hell's Canyon one of the most heavenly places in the Pacific Northwest.

Part D: Fill in the blanks with the appropriate idiom.

to look up to someone	to think over	to show off	to look over
What's the matter?	to be well off	to check out	to get away
to put up with	to take out

1. My boyfriend asked me to marry him. However, I am going to have _____ it _____.
2. Many people _____ famous actors and athletes because they're successful.
3. She has been crying for hours. _____ with her?
4. Young teenage boys like _____ in front of girls to try and impress them.

5. If I _____, I would own many houses and cars, and I would travel all over the world.
6. He is a grumpy man. I don't know how his wife _____ him.
7. I _____ your mother for a special dinner. It is our anniversary.
8. Before I gave the report to my boss, I had to _____ it _____.
9. I would like _____ the car _____ before I buy it.
10. The character in the novel was always trying _____ from the FBI agents in the movie.