

Progressive Forms in Conditionals:

***MAKE SURE YOU REVIEW PROGRESSIVE VERB TENSES!

True: I am sitting in class right now, so I can not go to the movie theater right now.

Conditional: If I were not sitting (past progressive) in class right now, I could go to the movie theater.

Combine these sentences:

True: I am not swimming right now. I am not wearing my bathing suit.

Conditional: If I were...

True: I was not running in Carolina Park yesterday. I did not see my friend's soccer game.

Conditional: If I had been running in Carolina Park yesterday, I would have seen my friend's soccer game.

True: The dog was barking because nobody was playing with him.

Conditional:

True: It is not snowing, so I will not be throwing snowballs at William.

Conditional:

True: Natalia is not going to Bungalow tonight, so she will not be dancing with Francisco.

Conditional:

True: Because the Phillies are winning right now, I feel very happy.

Conditional:

True: I was showering yesterday when you called. I did not answer your call.

Conditional: