

CHAPTER 12: Error Corrections

Directions: The following sentences contain errors. Correct the errors.

1. What is the superintendent of schools going to say in his discourse tonight will affect all of us.
2. I asked Tina help me move the desk to the other side of the office.
3. My roommate asked me what do you want to do Friday? I replied it depends of the whether.
4. What my cousin and I did it was our secret. We didn't even tell our parents what did we do.
5. The nurse asked that I felt okay. I told her that I don't feel well.
6. Is obvious that the ability to use a computer it is an important skill in the contemporary world.
7. They asked us that we will be sure to turn out the lights when we leave.
8. Is true you almost drowned? my friend asked me.
Yes, I said. I'm really happy to be alive. It was really scary.
9. It is a fact that I almost drowned makes me very careful about water safety whenever I go swimming.
10. I didn't know where am I supposed to get off the bus, so I asked the driver where is the art museum. He tell me the name of the street. He said he will tell me when should I get off the bus.
11. Studying economics last year made me realize that what kind of career did I want to have.
12. My father did not live with us. When other kids asked me where was my father, I told them he is going to come to visit me very soon.
13. I asked him what kind of movies does he like, he said me I like action movies.