

CHAPTER 15: Too vs. very. (Chart 15-3)

Directions: Add too or very to the sentences, as appropriate.

1. The box is _____ heavy, but I can lift it.
2. Jorge dropped out of his physics course because it was _____ hard for him.
3. I think it's _____ late to purchase tickets to the concert. I heard they were sold out.
4. It's _____ humid outside today, but I'm still going to take my daily walk.
5. It's _____ cold to go outside today, so I will stay indoors and play video games.
6. Our cat is fourteen years old. Now he's _____ old to catch mice in the field across the street.
7. She was _____ ill. Nevertheless, she came to the family gathering.
8. Tom was _____ injured to play in the game. The trainers said he should be healthy enough to play next week.
9. Learning a foreign language is _____ difficult, but most of the students are doing well.
10. We enjoyed our dinner at that restaurant last night. It was _____ good.
11. Professor Constantino is always _____ interesting, but I'm _____ tired to go to class tonight.
12. The meal was _____ good. I enjoyed every bit of it.
13. I'm _____ sleepy to watch the rest of the movie. Let me know how it turns out.
14. Susan was running _____ fast for me to keep up with her, so I fell behind.
15. The girls were _____ busy to help me clean out the garage, so I did it myself.
16. It's _____ dark to see in here. Please turn on the lights.