

REFLEXIVE PRONOUNS REVIEW

Directions: Fill in the blanks to the sentences below with an appropriate reflexive pronoun and a logical verb. Pay close attention to the content to determine the missing verbs.

1. Be careful with that sharp knife! You can _____ if you're careful.
2. It was the first day of class. I sat next to another student and began a conversation about the class and the classroom. After we had talked for a few minutes, I said, "Hi. My name is Rita Wren." In other words, I _____ to the other student.
3. When I walked into the room, I heard John's voice. I looked around, but the only person I saw and heard was John. In other words, John was _____ to _____ when I walked into the room.
4. My wife and I have our own business. We don't have a boss. In other words, we _____ our business _____.
5. Mr. and Mrs. Hall own their own business. No one taught them how to be small business managers. In other words, they _____ everything they needed to know about running a small business.
6. Mr. Bryant committed suicide. In other words, he _____.
7. I climbed to the top of the diving tower and walked to the end of the diving board. Before I dove into the pool, I said, "Good luck!" to myself. In other words, I _____ luck.
8. Becky is home in bed because she has the flu. She's resting and drinking plenty of fluids. She is being careful about her health. In other words, she is _____ of _____.
9. Sometimes we have problems in our lives. Sometimes we fail. But we shouldn't get too discouraged or depressed. We need to believe that we can solve our problems and succeed. If we _____ in _____, we can accomplish our goals.
10. When I failed to get the new job, I was sad and disappointed. I was full of self-pity. In other words, I _____ down because I didn't get the job.

11. In a cafeteria, people walk through a section of the restaurant and pick up their food.
In other words, they serve _____.