

SIMPLE PAST: QUESTIONS, SHORT ANSWERS, AND IRREGULAR VERBS

Directions: With a classmate -

*Speaker A: Ask questions beginning with "Did you...?" Listen carefully to Speaker B's answers to make sure he or she is using the irregular verbs correctly. Look at your irregular verbs if necessary to check the correct form of an irregular verb. ***You can look at this page.*

*Speaker B: In order to practice using irregular verbs answer "yes" to all of Speaker A's questions. Give both a short answer and a long answer. ***You should not be looking at this page.*

Example: eat breakfast this morning.

SPEAKER A (looking at this page): Did you eat breakfast this morning?

SPEAKER B (not looking at this page): Yes, I did. I ate breakfast this morning.

1. sleep well last night	6. lose your notebook yesterday
2. wake up early this morning	7. find your notebook
3. come to class late today	8. take a bus somewhere yesterday
4. bring your books to class	9. ride in a car yesterday
5. put your books on your desk	10. drive a car
SWITCH ROLES
11. hear about the hurricane	16. go to a party last night
12. read the newspaper this morning	17. think about me
13. catch a cold last week	18. have a good time
14. feel terrible	19. meet (...) the first day of class
15. see a doctor	20. shake hands with (...) when you first met him / her
SWITCH ROLES
21. buy some books yesterday	26. send your parents an email
22. begin to read a new book	27. lend (...) some money
23. fly to Quito	28. wear a coat yesterday
24. run to class today	29. go to the aquarium last week
25. write your parents an email	30. feed the birds at the park

SWITCH ROLES

- 31. make your own dinner last night
- 32. leave home at six this morning
- 33. drink a cup of tea before class
- 34. fall down yesterday
- 35. hurt yourself when you fell down

- 36. break your leg
- 37. understand the question
- 38. speak to (...) yesterday
- 39. tell him/her your opinion of this class
- 40. mean what you said